

SUITABLE FOR AGES 5-8

best one

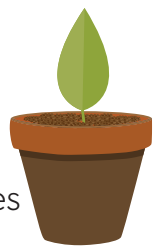

Odd One Out is a story of accepting others and treating them fairly. Discuss what it means to be a good person.

INSTRUCTIONS Make a copy for each student to complete; there is a blank space for them to put in their own idea about how to be the Best One.

The Odd One Out and friends learned that being a good and kind person makes everyone feel good!

Here is a checklist you can do to see how you are becoming the Best One you can be!

Name: _____

Put a tick under the picture that best matches you!	Starting to	Developing	Expert
	Once in a while I do this 	Sometimes I do this 	Almost always I do this
I follow directions quickly, safely, and correctly
I am assertive for myself and others
I use kind words and actions
I listen with my whole body
I use self-control during the day
I use my time wisely and finish work
I take care of my stuff
I try my best

