

‘Yeah... Nah! Why?’

Decide on 3 questions / statements from the below.

The Reporter will ask your chosen three questions to the interviewees, who will decide to hold up thumbs up (yeah), thumbs down (nah). The Reporter will then ask each person to briefly explain why.

What I choose to share or like makes a difference in the world.

Are we making too many marks, and oversharing our lives online?

Should children under 13 be allowed to have social media accounts?

Owners should not create social media accounts for their pets. That’s not cute...it’s weird.

Are social networking sites are good for society?

Young people should be outside – not inside making so many marks on social media.

The marks we make online have enabled a ‘me, me, me’ society!

Choosing the right profile picture is just as important as what you post online.

I think carefully before I post or share anything online.

Are protests a thing of the past?

Do online campaigns cause people to take action in real life?

Do we take online petitions seriously today?

I would delete all my social media accounts for $200.

Parents need to stop oversharing their children’s lives online.

Today becoming famous is more important than social issues.

Are we going too far to get noticed online?

What are three things you wouldn’t want shared online?

What are the three best ways to have your voice heard?
